

Course Policies

It is your responsibility to determine what material is being covered each class and the dates of all exams.

Team work is encouraged outside of class but not on exams.

You should expect a quiz each class.

No calculators or notes are permitted on exams.

Makeup exams are only for University excused absences.

You should come to lecture having read about the topic and tried problems.

You should come to recitation with questions on problems.

You should read the lab manual before each lab.

Grading: Exams 50%, Lab 5%, Quizzes 5%, Final 40% or Final Only

Statement: I understand that my grade in this course will be determined by my performance. I will read the material before the lecture, try the problems before seeking help. If I do not understand the material I will get help before the next class, since I understand that each topic requires the understanding of all previous material. I will learn any mathematics that is necessary in order to understand the material. I am prepared to Q drop this course if I have not demonstrated by April 2 that I have the time, desire and ability to pass this course.

Signature..... Date.....

The Americans with Disabilities Act is a federal anti-discrimination statute that provides comprehensive civil rights protection for persons with disabilities. Among other things, this legislation requires that all students with disabilities be guaranteed a learning environment that provides for reasonable accommodation of their abilities. If you believe you have a disability requiring an accommodation, please contact the Department of Student Life, Services for Students with Disabilities, in Room 126 of the Koldus Building, or call 845-1637.

Aggie Honor Code

An Aggie does not lie, cheat, or steal or tolerate those who do. (See the Honor Council Rules and Procedures on the Web <http://www.tamu.edu/aggiehonor>.)