

Figure 3: The first-ever images of a black hole taken in the 2017 EHT observations of M87* (EHT Collaboration 2019d), reconstructed with SMILI, of which I am a core developer. I co-led the imaging parameter survey of M87* with SMILI, deriving the acceptable images on the synthetic data including the above representative ones.